- 1 Five authors of Afghanistan (M. Ḥ. 'Ešmatollāhī, W. Bīneš, M. Qāsem, D. Baḥtiyārī, M. A. 'Aẓīmī, M. Kābolī) are presenting in this book the result of a common research about the rise of Taliban. The book is divided in four chapters. The first one deals with the ethnic structure of the Taliban, their religious and political views. The second chapter is devoted to the historical backgrounds of the formation of the Taliban. In the third chapter the authors deal with the practical aspects of the Taliban rule in Afghanistan.
- 2 Fourth chapter is devoted to the international relations of the Taliban rule and various aspects of their foreign policy.
- 3 This book is actually reflecting a number of information collected from different sources.
