In Memoriam: Pieter Spierenburg (1948-2019)

Paul Lawrence

- 1 The following texts are printed to mark the passing of Pieter Spierenburg. Pieter was a significant pioneer in the field of criminal justice history, a founder member of the International Association for the History of Crime and Criminal Justice, and a longstanding member of the Editorial Board of this journal. What follows consists of two personal reflections on Pieter and his work (written by James Sharpe and Manon van der Heijden), the translation of an interview with Pieter originally published in Dutch, a consideration of the significance of Pieter's work on confinement (written by Falk Bretschneider and originally presented at the European Social Science History Conference in 2014) and the final book review written by Pieter himself. Pieter Spierenburg was an inspiring historian and a genial colleague who will be sorely missed.
