We’ll dance
(in memoriam David Bowie)

Nathalie Vincent-Arnaud

We’ll dance
We’ll dance away the fears, the tears, the lullabies
The monsters creeping by Turning the scars to blues

We’ll dance
We’ll sing away the pains and the tongue-twisted lies
The darkness crawling in
And the wind growing wild

We’ll dance
We’ll just turn on the lights of weird hopes cast aside
The people passing by Putting on brand new smiles

We’ll dance
Burning bright in disguise when the faces turn cold
Clinging to stories of old
Of aliens, sores and dance halls

And we’ll believe
