I am grateful to have this opportunity to share updates to my book with a wide audience. Since its publication, now eight years on, I have been able to add a good number of additional references and to correct some errors. This article also brings the reader up to date on recent bibliography in the field. Several works have been published by two authors in particular – Richard Allen and Jörg Peltzer – which have added greatly to our knowledge of the workings of the secular clergy in Ducal Normandy. Richard Allen, in particular, has been editing the charters of the bishops of Avranches, Coutances and Sées, the results of which will form part of the forthcoming series *Corpus des actes épiscopaux normands (XIe-XIIIe siècle)*¹. He has been exceptionally generous in sharing information in advance of publication, hence the large number of corrections and additions for these three dioceses. His Ph.D. dissertation on the Norman bishops, cited below, is available online at <http://theses.gla.ac.uk/>.

1. Corpus des actes épiscopaux normands (XIe-XIIIe siècle), dir. G. Combalbert, V. Gazeau and others, édition papier et numérique, (Presses universitaires de Caen, forthcoming).

I would also like to thank Christopher Brooke, Grégory Combalbert, Valentine Fallan, Tamiko Fujimoto, Véronique Gazeau, Christophe Mauduit, Jörg Peltzer, and Nicholas Vincent for having alerted me to specific corrections or additions.

The additions and corrections listed here are often small refinements of dates (e.g., for “c.1183” read “1184”), of personal names (e.g., for “Geoffrey of Espavaldi” read “Geoffrey Espavaldi”), and of additional citations (e.g., “to the string of refs. at the end of line 3, add: ‘and cf. EEA XXXIV no. 87.’”). But sometimes the additions are consequential. A 1071 charter of archbishop John adds a good number of clergy to the lists for Rouen. A newly discovered chancellor at Avranches has shed more light on the workings of the chancery there. All told, about sixty-six new clergy have been discovered. In the pages that follow, these names are highlighted in bold. They are also listed in Appendix A. Those ten clergy which have been expunged are listed in Appendix B. Quite a number of bishops have had their starting or ending dates modified. Cumulatively these additions and corrections serve to alert the reader – the author hardly needed reminding – that this is a project without end.

There are two instances of bishops from unspecified sees, perhaps of Normandy, which should be mentioned. In Fauroux, Actes no. 7, dated 996 × 1006, there is a bp. named Hervey (but perhaps of Nantes), and in ibid., no. 3, dated c.968, there is a bp. named Aillemundus. (See Musset, ‘Un millénaire oublié’, p. 569).

Page 3. In the first line of the entry on John of Avranches, for “Also known as John of Ivry and John of Bayeux” read “Also known as John of Ivry, John of St-Philbert, and John of Bayeux”. In line 6 of that same entry, for “the brother of Hugh bp. of Bayeux” read “the half-brother of Hugh bp. of Bayeux”. Delete the final sentence of the entry. It appears the 13 March anniversary refers to a much later bp. named John.

Page 4. In the entry on Richard of Beaufou, delete the sentence: “One of his last occs. was at the dedication of the abbey of Lucerne on Easter (4 April) 1143 (Gallia inst. 112-113; Neustria Pia, p. 793)”. This cannot be Richard de Beaufou as the bp. is described as the brother of Hasculf de Subligny, i.e. Richard de Subligny. At the end of the entry on Richard, delete the phrase “, and another son named Robert (Fauroux, Actes no. 220)”. The Richard de Beaufou mentioned in this act is that of the 11th century.

Page 5. In the entry on Herbert, delete the entire fourth sentence. In its place, read: “Although the Gallia 480 states that Herbert d. on 6 Sept. 1161, it is more likely that he d. in Sept. 1160, as found in RT I 328 (Allen, ‘Les actes d’Avranches’ p. 67, n. 38).”

Page 6. To the first sentence of the entry on William Burel, add the information that he may have been earlier an archdch. of Le Mans (Allen, 'Les actes d'Avranches', p. 69, n. 55). And after the first sentence, add: "Based on Pipe Roll evidence, Peltzer thinks it possible that William was chosen as bp. when Henry II's court was at Le Mans at Christmas 1183 (Canon Law, p. 154, n. 381). But R. Allen (personal communication 14 August 2011) notes that William Burel was already bp.-elect on 29 March 1183 citing Ramackers no. 236 which is misdated to 1184 by Ramackers who was unaware of a ch. issued by William as bp. on 2 Jan. 1184, Cartulaire des abbayes de Saint-Pierre de la Couture et de Saint-Pierre de Solesmes, ed. Bénédicins de Solesmes (Le Mans, 1881), no. CXLIII, p. 118".

Page 6. Add the following to the end of the penultimate sentence on bp. William Burel: "But R. Allen observes that William was still active as bp. in Sept. 1195 (citing Rouen, Leber ms. 5636, no. 10), and suggests that his d. is 17 or 18 March 1196 (Allen, 'Robert Cénalis', p. 12, n. 28)." To the end of that entry, add: "William's father, Durand Burel, served as King Henry II's cupbearer (Peltzer, Canon Law, p. 155), and his mother was Etiennette, (Nécrologe-obituaire de la cathédrale du Mans, ed. G. Busson et A. Ledru (Le Mans, 1906), p. 269). William himself was a great benefactor of Avranches cath. both in lands and liturgical objects. He was buried at Avranches cath. in ipso vestibule hostio (Allen, 'Robert Cénalis', pp. 13 and 23)."

Page 6. For the entry on Mag. William of Chemillé, and in the penultimate line, for "1198 to 1202" read "1198 to 1200". At the end of that entry, add: "For a full discussion of William's disputed election at Angers see Peltzer, Canon Law, pp. 156-61, 202-08".

Page 6. In line 3 of the entry on William Ptolomeus, add that the seneschal of Normandy is to be identified with William son of Ralph (Allen, 'Robert Cénalis', p. 16). To the end of his entry, add: "ante majus altare sepultus ad partem dexteram (ibid. p. 23). He was descended ex Rogerio patre et Heloide matre, prob. to be identified with Roger de Saint-André (fl. 1172) and his wife, Héloïse (fl. 1181-92); and he may have had a son named William (ibid. pp. 15-6 and n. 56). William himself was a great benefactor of Avranches cath. both in lands and liturgical objects (ibid. pp. 17-9)."

Page 6. To the end of the explanatory paragraph on the deans of Avranches, add: "Allen ('Five charters') has shed new light on the origins of the deanship. He shows that the office was begun at the time of bp. Turgis, that Richard of Subligny seems to have been the first dean (meaning that Urson was a rural dean), and identifies the properties attached to the dean's preb."

Page 11. Relating to the entry on Robert Berhandi, it is likely that Robert Berhaudi (sic) the archdcn. and the Archdcn. Robert who appears in Müller, no. 104 and Rouen, Leber ms. 5636, no. 10 are two different people. For Robert Berhaudi, who was episcopal notarius under William Ptolomeus (AN, L 976, no. 1091 = Allen, ‘Les actes d’Avranches’, Appendix IV), a can. (cart. Avranches, fos. 10v-11r) and finally mag. and archdcn. in 1231 (AN, L 975, no. 1059), see Allen, ‘Robert Cénalis’, pp. 18-9. The archdcn. Robert who appears in Müller, no. 104 and Rouen, Leber ms. 5636, no. 10 first appears in 1191 (Pigeon, Diocèse d’Avranches II (1888), pp. 673-4). It is perhaps he who is the Archdcn. Robert who witnesses a charter of 1215 (AN, L 976, no. 1132).

2. I thank Richard Allen for this ref.

Page 12. In the first sentence of the entry on Hugh, for “1149” read “1159” and for “1135 × 53” read “1142 × 53”. In the third line, for “1161 × 70” read “1161 × 63”. In the fourth line, cart. Savigny no. 16 and AN, L 978, no. 1357 are the same doc.

Page 12. In the second line of the entry on Mag. Guy, for “1188 × 90” read “1188 × 91”. Add: “His last occ. datable to a single year is 1191 (Pigeon, Diocèse d'Avranches II (1888) 673-4)”. In line three, for “no. 321” read “no. 1058”. To the end of the entry add: “His d. is given as 6 Feb. in the obit of Le Mans cath. (Nécrologe-obituaire de la cathédrale du Mans, ed. G. Busson et A. Ledru (Le Mans, 1906), p. 32).”

Page 13. Change the start of the entry on Gislebert to read: “First. occ. on 13 March 1155 (cart. Savigny, no. 12); also occ. in 1159 (Baluze MS. 77, no. 85);”. In line two, for “1161 × 70” read “1161 × 63”.

Page 13. To the end of the first paragraph in the entry on Roger, add: “and in 1191 (Pigeon, Diocèse d'Avranches II (1888), pp. 673-4)”.

Page 14. Between the entries for Robert II and Mag. Nicholas of L’Aigle, add the name of John, magister scholarum, who witnessed a ch. of bp. William Burel in 1191 (Allen ‘Les actes d’Avranches’, p. 75, citing, Pigeon, Diocèse d’Avranches II (1888), pp. 673-4).

Page 14. In the second line of the entry on Mag. Nicholas of L’Aigle, for “in 1195” read “in Sept. 1195”. And to the end of that entry, add: “Nicholas of L’Aigle had an interest in canon law (S. Kutner and E. Rathbone, ‘Anglo-Norman Canonists of the Twelfth Century,’ Traditio vii (1949-51), p. 317). He was the son of Walter de Aquila (ibid., n. 7). And see also Peltzer, Canon Law, pp. 161-4.”

Page 15. In first line of entry on Geoffrey Brito, for “nos. 125-6” read “nos. 123-4”; in line 4, for “Campcervor” read “Campcervon”; and in the last line for “no. 125” read “no. 123”.

Page 16. To the entry on Reginald, add the following sentence: “He is the same person as Reginald the chapl. of Coutances (p. 103): it is unclear if he is associated with Avranches or Coutances.”

Page 17. Between the entries for Rualenus and William son of Hervey, add: “? W. Occ. once in a ch. of William of Le Hommet in 1202 × 04. The transcription of the now-lost original is not fully reliable, and it is possible that this figure belongs to Coutances, Lisieux, or even the household of William of Le Hommet (Peltzer, ‘Portchester’, Annexe no. 2, pp. 479-80).”

Page 17. For “William son of Hervey” read “William brother of Hervey”; for “Willelmus capellanus filius Hervei” read “Willelmus capellanus frater Hervei”; and for “c.1094 × 1133” read “c.1113”. See Allen, ‘Norman Episcopate’, II, Appendix G, no. 9, pp. 553-55.

Page 17. In the entry on Mag. Alan, for “and two of bp. William Burel both dated c.1182” read “and one of bp. William Burel (cart. Savigny, no. 67). He also appears in a charter alongside the same bp. (Cart. Le Mans no. 128)”.

Page 18. Between the entries for Anschetille and Auboin, add the following: “Ansgar Pilet. Fined at the Norman exchequer in 1180 so that his preb. could be held in free alms. Ansgar is not called a can., but the fact that he is a preb. and that the canons of Avranches are similarly fined at the same time strongly suggests he is a cath. can. (Pipe Rolls of Normandy, p. 29).”

Page 38. Between the entries for Ralph and Richard II, add the following new entry: "? Fulbert. Occ. once in ch. of St. Etienne of Caen at the time of Abbot Eudo (hence 1107 × 40), attesting on behalf of one Ebremarius (cart. St.-Etienne, fos. 54v-55r). Fulbert appears as archdcn. not explicitly of Bayeux. On balance, though, it is likely that this is Fulbert archdcn. II or III of Rouen.”⁷

Page 40. To the list of Bayeux archdeacons, between the entries for Patrick and William of Le Breuil, add a new entry: “Humphrey. Occ. in a ch. of bp. Philip, hence 1142 × 63, but various abbatial attestors refine the date of the ch. to 1149 × 63. The mention of Rotrou as abp. in the doc. suggests the end of the range: he was prob. bp. of Evreux when he offered counsel to bp. Philip (Léchaudé d’Anisy, Extrait, I, p. 275, no. 30).”

Page 40. To the end of sentence 1 for the entry on Waleran, add: “once specifically as archdcn. of Hiémois (Léchaudé d’Anisy, Extrait, I, p. 362, no. 3).”

Page 42. To the end of the entry on Jordan, add: “Jordan was the brother of bp. Henry (Léchaudé d’Anisy, Extrait, II, p. 120, no. 945; cf. Cart. Plessis-Grimoult, fo. 243r).” J. Peltzer (personal communication of 28 May 2010) cautions that there is some measure of doubt here because while the ch. in questions reads “cette charte est attestée par Jourdain, archidicacre; ainsi que par Vautier, frères de l’évêque”, in other instances where Jordan appears as archdcn. he is not explicitly called “brother” while Walter is so identified (e.g., Cart. Bayeux no. 48; ADC, H 5606).

Page 43. To the end of the entry on William the archdcn., add: “Prob. to be identified as William of Semilly, in which case his career would begin as can. of Bayeux (q.v.), then archdcn. prob. by 1190 and certainly by 1204 when he was a candidate to replace bp. Henry and when he issued two chs. during the episcopal vacancy (Léchaudé d’Anisy, Extrait, I, p. 7 no. 44, and p. 104, no. 80), and finally dean of Bayeux by 1223.”

Page 45. To the end of paragraph 1 in the entry on Sanson the treasurer, add: “For his career at Worcester, see EEA XXXIII, pp. xxxvii-xxxix, and passim.”

Pages 45-6. Previously I had assumed that thesaurarius and sacrista were interchangeable terms for the office of treasurer at Bayeux. It seems more likely, however, that the title of sacrista is a synonym for custos (variant is custor), which terms should prob. be translated “subtreasurer”. This forms a parallel at Bayeux to the positions of dean and subdean, and of chanter and subchanter. This has implications for the entry on William I the custos on page 52 (see below), and for William of Harcourt whose new entry should now read: “William of Harcourt.⁸ His appearances dated to a single year are 1148 (Cart. Bayeux no. LXI = Cal. Docs. France no. 1438, dated by abp. Hugh’s presence at the council of Reims

Page 52. The new entry on William I should read: “First occ. as sacrista is in Sept. 1146 (Cart. Bayeux no. XLI = Regesta III, no. 58), then on 3 March 1153 (Cart. Bayeux nos. CXVII and CXXXIX), on 29 April 1156 (ibid. no. CL = Müller no. 14, pp. 104-5), in 1160 (Cart. Bayeux no. CCCCXLII), on 3 Jan. 1164 (ibid. no. CXV = Müller no. 24, pp. 119-20), on 9 May 1165 (Cart. Bayeux no. CXVI), and finally in Feb. 1169 (ibid. no. CXXXV). He was dead by 1171 when he is referred to in the past tense “sicut illam vivente Willelmo custore Baiocensi tenui” (ADC H 1854 [6]). He was involved in a controversy over the tithe at Bretteville-l’Orgueilleuse in 1165 (Müller, no. 25, pp. 120-21). William usually appears as sacrista, but often as custos (Cart. Bayeux nos. XLI, CXVI; Bourrienne, Philippe de Harcourt, no. XV; Cart. Troarn, fos. 135v-136r; Cart. Evreux no. 85; Cal. Docs. France, no. 496; ADC H 1854 [6]).

That William the sacrista is different from William of Harcourt the treasurer is certain since both appear in the same docs. (Cart. Bayeux nos. CXXXIX, CXVII; Bourrienne, Philippe de Harcourt no. XV). And that William the sacrista is the same person as William the custos can be assumed from two chs. of Philip bp. of Bayeux for Plessis-Grimoult, one where William attests as sacrista and the other where he attests as custos (Bourrienne, Philippe de Harcourt nos. XV and XX). Moreover, in a controversy against Richard de Chicheboville over the tithe at Bretteville-l’Orgueilleuse William is identified as sacrista in 1165 and custor in 1171, but it is clear from the context that this is the same person (Müller, no. 25, pp. 120-21 = ADC H 1854 [4]; and ADC H 1854 [6]).⁹”

10. ADC H 7745 is a late-medieval cart. for the abbey of St.-Martin of Troarn, known as the Chartrier Blanc. Ch. no. 13, on fos. 3v-6r, is a 1414 settlement between Bayeux and Troarn in which is embedded a ch. from Feb. 1169, which is in fact the Troarn counterpart to Bayeux’s version as found in Cart. Bayeux, no. CXXXV. The witness lists are identical except that the Cart. Bayeux omits five names, the only one of which has any chronological ramification is that of Wace. I thank V. Fallan for calling this doc. to my attention, and to F. Le Saux for sharing a photocopy of it with me.

Page 92. In the entry of Richard of Bohon, in line 2, delete “Jaffé, Regesta no. 15023”. As regards the d. date of bp. Richard of Bohon, Peltzer, Canon Law, p. 147, no. 344, citing a letter of Pope Lucius III, holds that Richard d. in 1178; but a letter of the constable William of Le Hommet is addressed to him and Richard l’Évêque, bp. of Avranches (ADM, H 465, of which a copy can be found at the Institut de France). Since William of Le Hommet did not become constable until 1179, perhaps even 1180, it is likely that bp. Richard didn’t d. until 1179 or 1180.¹² In paragraph two, move the phrase “Had a seneschal named Mag. Stephen (cart. Boscherville, fo. 133r)” to the entry on bp. William of Tournebu.

Pages 92-3. In line 1 of the entry for William of Tournebu, for “El. in 1180” read “El. in 1183” (Peltzer, Canon Law, p. 147). Delete sentence two, and replace it with: “Still bp.-el. on 10 June 1184 (Cart. Luzerne, no. XV, p. 14).” As regards the d. date of bp. William, R. Allen informs me that William was certainly dead before Dec. 1201, since a letter of King John refers to the election of bp. Vivian (Rot. Pat., p. 4). Peltzer notes this, but also draws attention to a mention of a charter issued by William in 1202 (Canon Law, p. 148 n. 352). This, however, is probably the result of a misreading of the letter V. (Vivianus) for Vuillelmus (which happens frequently in cart. copies of Vivian’s acts, and even elsewhere in the source cited by Peltzer).

Page 93. To the end of the entry on William of Tournebu, add: “A kinsman of his, Simon de Tournebu, nephew and seneschal of bp. Allen writes in a personal communication that the original from which Le Cacheux worked was damaged at the point where the date was given. He initially expanded “M.º C.º nonagesimo s...” as “M.º C.º nonagesimo secundo”. However, the cart. copy of this act gives “M.º C.º nonagesimo VIIº”. Having consulted the cart., Le Cacheux corrected one of his transcriptions, but not the other.

Page 165. After the entry for William of Pacy, add the following new entry: “W[illiam] son of William son of Ralph. Occ. as probable can. in 1184 × 1202 (cart. Evreux, no. 38) as W. filius W. filii Rad’ quondam senescall’ Normann’. Since we know from other sources that W. son of Ralph is William, it seems likely that the W. in both instances of the formula W. filius W. filli Radullfi would therefore be Willelmus. The doc. in which can. William appears can be dated 1184 × 1202 on the basis of the appearance of A[micus] treas. of Rouen. William the can. was the brother of Robert bp. of Worcester (1191-93), on whom see EEA XXXIV, pp. xxix-xxx and acta 36-44. On William son of Ralph the seneschal see Delisle-Berger, Actes, intro vol. pp. 481-83.”

Audoeni*” in c.988 (Musset, ‘Un millénaire oublié’, pp. 563, 569).” In the last two lines, for “According to the Gallia (col. 766), Roger d. on 19 Oct.” read “His d. is given as 19 Oct. in the obit. of Lisieux cath. (Allen, ‘Norman Episcopate’, I, p. 247, citing BN, ms. n. a. lat. 1778, fo. 89v)”.

Page 169. In the entry on Herbert, lines 6 and 7, delete “1018 × 1023 but prob.”, and in line 9, for “1049” read “1027 × 1035, or more likely 1033 × 1034”. To the end of the penultimate sentence, add the following footnote: “R. Allen has called into question Herbert’s attendance at the council of Reims (Allen, ‘Norman Episcopate’, I, pp. 257-9).”

Page 169. In the entry on Hugh of Eu, add the following footnote to the end of sentence 3: “R. Allen has called into question the date (1049) traditionally given as the beginning of Hugh’s episcopate, and has argued instead for 1046 × 1047/8 (Allen, ‘Norman Episcopate’, I, pp. 257-9).”

Page 170. To the refs. listed at the end of the entry on John, add: “BN, ms. n. a. lat. 1778, fo. 51r”. To the end of John’s entry, add: “It is possible that his dalle funéraire is to be found in the transept of Lisieux cath. (M. Baylé, ‘La lutte contre le dragon dans l’iconographie des saints en Normandie’, Les Saints dans la Normandie médiévale, eds. P. Bouet and F. Neveux (Caen, 2000), p. 178, with photo on p. 186).”

Page 171. Recast the final sentence for the entry on Arnulf as: “Although the Lisieux cath. obit honors him on 29 August (BN, ms. n. a. lat. 1778, fo. 76r), Arnulf d. perhaps on 31 August 1184 (Schriber, Arnulf, p. 138), or more likely 30 Sept. 1182 (Letters of Arnulf, p. lx; cf. Peltzer, Canon Law, p. 111, n. 177).”

Page 171. To the entry on Ralph of Warneville, insert the following as new sentence 3: “Peltzer, Canon Law, p. 112 and n. 185, however, proposes that Lisieux was still vacant in March 1182, citing Henry II’s will (Delisle-Berger, Actes, no. DCXII) which fails to mention a bp. for the see of Lisieux at that time.” In line 4, for “He was still bp.-el. in 1182.” read “He was no longer called “elect” in 1183 (Cart Préaux, no. B63).” At the end of the entry add: “The Lisieux cath. obit records Ralph’s d. on 10 Sept. (BN, ms. n. a. lat. 1778, fo. 79r).”

Page 171. To the end of sentence 1 for the entry on William of Rupière, add: “Or even possibly as late as 1193 (Gallia 780)”. To the penultimate sentence of the same entry, add: “Peltzer, however, asserts 1200, citing Rot. Chart. 99a (Canon Law, p. 113)”. At the end of that same entry, add: “His father was Roger of Rupière (Peltzer, Canon Law, p. 112, n. 187, citing BN ms. lat. 1778, fo. 89v).”

Page 173. In line 13 of the entry on John of Neaulfe, for “Robert of Torigni (II 130) incorrectly calls him an archdcn. of Lisieux, writing that” read “Robert of Torigni (II 130) calls him an archdcn. of Lisieux, incorrectly writing that”.

Page 173. In the entry on William add “of Pont-de-l’Arche” as his surname (Eure, chef-lieu de canton). To end of the penultimate sentence, add: “as well as a ch. of confirmation on behalf of the abbey of Préaux in 1202 × 06 (Cart. Préaux, no. B122)”. Recast the final sentence to read: “Although 1218 has been regarded as the traditional date for the elevation of William de Pont-de-l’Arche (Formeville, Lisieux II p. ccxii, Gallia 782), G. Combalbert has found a ch. of Roger archdcn. of Lisieux from 28 April 1220 which states that Lisieux is ‘sede vacante’ (cart. St.-Evroul, fo. 96v, no. 190).”

Pages 177. Under the entry for Richard Barre, in line 8 of paragraph 2, for “(EEA VI no. 168)” read “(EEA VII no. 168)”. Kemp, ‘Archidiaconal and Vice-Archidiaconal Acta: Additions and Corrections’, Historical Research lxxx (2007) 5-7)”. To the end of paragraph 2, add: “He had a cleric named Mag. Page 178. To the end of the entry on Roger, add: “G. Combalbert has found a ch. of Roger’s dated 28 April 1220 (cart. St.-Evroul, fo. 96v, no. 190).”

Page 178. Delete the entry for John of Sées. This is John, archdcn. of the diocese of Sées, i.e., John, archdcn. of Eraines/Exmes, nephew of bp. Froger of Sées. Froger had previously been associated with the church of Lisieux, during which time it is possible he came into possession of this preb., which he then granted to his nephew, or to which his nephew perhaps thought he had claim following Froger’s d. in 1184/5 (the dispute arose during the pontificate of Clement III (1187-1191)).

Page 195. To footnote 2, add: “There is a new edition of ‘The Acta Archiepiscoporum Rotomagensium: Study and Edition’ by Richard Allen, Tabularia (Documents), no. ix (2009), pp. 1-66, which is now preferred to PL CXLVII, col. 273-80.”

Page 195. In the entry for Hugh (son of Hugh), to the end of paragraph 1, add: “and is mentioned in the ‘Translatio Ila S. Audoeni’ in c.988 (Musset, ‘Un millénaire oublié’, pp. 563, 569)”.

Page 196. Recast the last line in the entry of Robert (son of Richard I) to read: “GND II 98), of Rodulf of Gacé (GND II 232), and of William the spouse of Hawisa; Robert was also the brother of Emma, wife of King Aethelred (Orderic II 42). Page 197. Line 1 of the entry on John of Avranches should now read: "Also known as John of Ivry, John of St.-Philbert, and John of Bayeux...". In line 2, for "the brother of Hugh" read "the half-brother of Hugh".

Page 198. In lines 1-2 of the entry on Hugh of Amiens, for "Hugh was successively" read "Hugh was likely a can. at Thérouanne in 1112 (Freeburn, Hugh of Amiens, p. 7, citing Recueil des Chartes and Documents de Saint-Martin des Champs, ed. J. Depoin, 5 vols. (1912-21) I, pp. 222-3), and then successively".

Page 200. In line 6 of the entry for Rayner, for "before 1051" read "before 1054". To the end of that entry, add: "On Rayner as abbot of Ste.-Catherine-du-Mont (a.k.a. La Trinité-du-Mont de Rouen) see Gazeau, Normannia Monastica 2, pp. 265-6, and on him as abbot of Tréport see ibid., 2, p. 364."

Page 202. Sentence 4 in paragraph 2 of the entry for Robert of Neubourg should now read: "He replaced Geoffrey II as dean of Rouen by 5 June 1177 while retaining his archdcnry. (Glanville, St.-Lô, II, 325-26; Neustria Pia, p. 697), holding both positions in that same year (Chartes du Longueville, no. XIX; and cf. Carpenter, 'Dignitaries of York', pp. 30-4)."

Page 203. Under the entry for John of Coutances, add the following to footnote 20: "John was still archdnc. of Oxford in early 1192 when he ran afoul of William of Longchamp bp. of Ely and chief justiciar (EEA XXXI nos. 168, 169)." To footnote 22 add: "On John's career at Worcester see EEA XXXIV, pp. xxxi-iv and acta nos. 79-95".

Page 204. To the entry on Roger the Norman, after the first sentence, add: "J. Baldwin has proposed that it may have been Roger the Norman who, while in Paris, debated Peter the Chanter about the murder of Thomas Becket (J. W. Baldwin, 'A Debate at Paris over Thomas Becket between Master Roger and Master Peter the Chanter', Studia Gratiana xi (1967), pp. 119-32)."

Page 206. For the entry on Guy, recast sentence 2 to read: "It is impossible to say to which Norman cath. chapter archdnc. Guy belongs for the land he grants (Boulleville) is in the diocese of Evreux while the monastery to which he grants it (St.-Pierre, Préaux) is in the diocese of Lisieux."

Page 208. For the entry on Gother, in line 1, for "no. 48) and his" read "no. 48), then in 1071 (Allen, 'John of Ivry', Appendix III), and his".

Page 208. For the entry on Robert I, insert the following as sentence 2: "Occ. in 1071 as archdnc. of the Vexin (Allen, 'John of Ivry', Appendix III)." To the end of that entry, add: "Herimannus appears as his scribal assistant in a ch. of abp. John in 1071 (Allen, 'John of Ivry', Appendix III)."

Page 208. For the entry on Goslin II, line 1, for "occ. in 1075" read "occ. in 1071 (Allen, 'John of Ivry', Appendix III), then in 1075".

Page 210. Between archdcns. Alfred and Richard II, add the following new entry: "William. Occ. in ch. of donation by William of Vernon for the abbey of Montebourg, part of the actum being effected in Rouen with abp. Geoffrey and archdnc. William as witnesses, hence 1111 × 28 (cart. Montebourg, p. 79, no. 184)."²⁴

Page 211. To the end of the entry on Geoffrey, add: "He was also a can. at St.-Lô of Rouen, until that house converted to regular cans. in 1142 × 44 (Glanville, St.-Lô, II, no. ii)."

24. I thank Grégory Combalbert for this ref.

Page 217. To the entry on Renier, add: “Identified as archdcn. of the Vexin (AN, LL 1170, pp. 16-8)²⁵.”

Page 219. To the end of the entry on Nicholas son of Benedict, add: “He was also a can. at St.-Lô of Rouen, until that house converted to regular cans. in 1142 × 44 (Glanville, St.-Lô, II, no. ii).”

Page 220. To the sentence in line 6 which ends, “no. CXVI.” add the following footnote: “D. Carpenter, ‘Dignitaries of York’, p. 32, n. 73 redates this ch. from 1177 to Aug. 1177 × July 1183, in effect arguing for a longer tenure for Ralph of Warneville as treas. of Rouen, and a shorter tenure for Walter of Coutances. But all things considered, I believe 1177 is still the preferred date. The notification was drawn up when Jumièges was without its abbot: Gazeau, (Normannia Monastica, 2, pp. 162-3) confirms that the vacancy at Jumièges falls between 18 August 1176 and 21 March 1177 × 78. Also, one of the attestors to the ch. is William fitz Ralph who became seneschal of Normandy in 1177, here without his title, thus prob. earlier in 1177 than when he took office. I thank N. Vincent for sharing information on this ch. in advance of publication of his edition of Henry’s royal acta.”

Pages 220-21. Between the entries on Stigand and Gerard, add the following: “John. Occ. in a ch. of abp. John in 1071 (Allen, ‘John of Ivry’, Appendix III).”

Page 222. At the end of footnote 62, for “CLXXXV” read “CLXXV”, then add: “The list of witnesses works better for 1177. For a discussion of the dating issues see Carpenter, ‘Dignitaries of York’, pp. 30-2.”

Page 224. After the entry for Mag. Gislebert, add the names Helbert and Evald. They are explicitly identified as cancellarii mei in a ch. of abp. William Bona Anima, dated therefore 1079 × 1110 but prob. to c.1105 × 1110 if among the witnesses the name “Wraldus” abbot of Coulombs is a variant reading for “Thoroldus” who was abbot from c.1105 to 1115. (Bauduin, Première Normandie, Appendix II, no. 4 = Allen, ‘Norman Episcopate’, Appendix G, no. 67, pp. 698-99). Given the fact that the ch. is a late copy, with some orthographical concerns, it is possible that Helbert is the same person as Wibert the canon.

Page 226. Add the following footnote to the explanatory text on the position of the Official: "See now G. Combalbert, 'Émergence et affirmation d'une institution: le premier siècle de l'officialité de Rouen (v.1185-v.1280)', in Les officialités dans l'Europe médiévale et moderne. Des tribunaux pour une société chrétienne, eds. V. Beaulande-Barraud and M. Charrageat (Turnhout, 2014), pp. 1-29".

Page 226. To the list of Officials, add: "Mag. Eustace. Occ. as Official of abp. Walter, hence 1185 × 1207 (Combalbert, 'Émergence et affirmation', p. 7., citing ADSM 52 H 78 and cart. Boscherville, fos. 97r-v). Also a can. at Rouen by 1201. Almost certainly the same person as Mag. Eustace the notarius."

Page 230. To the entry on Simon, add: "He was involved in act of violence against the church of St.-Cande le Vieux ante 28 May 1198 (Reg. Innoc. III, vol. i, no. 209)."

Page 232. Under the entry for Ralph of Coutances, in line 1, for "Lincoln in 1183" read "Lincoln in 1182 × 83 (Kemp, EAA. no. 183), and in 1183". To the end of the entry, add: "though there is an anomalous ref. to him as can. in 1200 (cart. Graille, fo. 109r)".

He held land at St.-Céneri-près-Sées which was given to St.-Martin at Sées (ADO H 938, no. 317). He was Official in 1207 or 1209 (Combalbert, ‘Émergence et affirmation’, p. 7).”²⁷ Page 259. Under the entry on Robert Magnus, line 4, for “subchanter (C.T. Clay” read “subchanter, in which case he d. on 27 Sept. 1177 (C.T. Clay”.

Pages 259-60. Between the entries on Robert Osmundi and Robert son of Richard, add: “Robert Pullo. Occ. as can. in Feb. 1207 (Cart. Préaux, no. B128). It is prob. he who is abp. of Rouen 1208-1221 (Tabbagh, Fasti, pp. 79-80). He was described in a medieval chronicle as a man “qui tunc erat omnium ecclesiae canonicorum pauperimus, sed vir bonus et simplex” (Gallia, 59).”

Page 262. After the entry on Simon, add: “Son of the Count of the Perche. A certain ‘filius comitis P[er]t[ice]’, along with 15 other Rouen canons, was assessed funds to pay for the chapter house in 1175 × 81. (ADSM, G 4055 = Cal. Docs. France no. 11B). K. Thompson identifies him as Stephen of the Perche, son of Rotrou count of Mortagne (d.1144), and a kinsman of abp. Rotrou. (Power and Border Lordship in Medieval France: The county of the Perche, 1000-1226 (Woodbridge, 2002), p. 94; and idem, ‘Family Tradition and the Crusading Impulse: The Rotrou Counts of the Perche’, Medieval Prosopography xix (1998), pp. 17-8). island, and was even elected abp. of Palermo (cf. Hugo Falcundus, The History of the Tyrants of Sicily, tr. G. Loud and T. Wiedemann (Manchester, 1998), pp. 159-62). But since Stephen d. at Acre in 1168, it cannot be he who was the can. still being assessed by the Rouen chapter in 1175 × 81. It is possible, however, that this person is Geoffrey nephew of abp. Rotrou, prob. can. in 1165 × 70 (q.v.). But lacking a proper name, the identification must remain open.”

John is referred to on that same day in the dedicatory inscription at St.-André-en-Gouffern (Corpus des Inscriptions, no. 27)”. To footnote 8, add: “For Harduin’s association with the land of Neuville, see Clercs au service de la Réforme, p. 44 and n. 24).”

28. I thank Richard Allen for this ref., and indeed for most of the recent information on the Sées clergy.

Page 274. In the entry on Gerard II, to the penultimate sentence of the first paragraph, add the following note: “The date 23 Jan. most likely refers to Gerard I. A lost obit of the priory of Noyon-sur-Andelle recorded the d. of a Gerard, bp. of Sées, on 14 Apr. This might be Gerard I, but is most likely Gerard II. See Allen, ‘Norman Episcopate’, I, p. 434 n. 18.”

Page 274. In the entry for bp. Froger, line 3, delete the phrase “and archdcn. of Sées”. Insert the following as a new sentence 2: “He is prob. to be identified with Froger of Lisieux who witnesses a ch. in 1145 × 48 of abp. Theobald of Canterbury, and as Froger archdcn. of Derby in a Theobald act of 1149 × 53 (Fasti XI 38; A. Also on Froger, add: “Appears to have had some connection with the Premonstratensian abbey of Cappenberg (G. Niemeyer et al., eds, Die Viten Gottfrieds von Cappenberg, (Hannover, 2005), pp. 66-67, 163), where he was perhaps required to make his canonical profession as bp. (J.-F. Petit, ‘Professions canoniales d’évêques au XIIe siècle’, Analecta Praemonstratensia, xxxvii (1961), p. 237).”

Change “Froger d. in 1185 (RT II 130)” to “Froger d. in either 1184 (Le Prévost, ed., Orderici Vitalis vol. 5 (1855) p. 163, or in 1185 (RT II 130).” Add: ‘He is commemorated in the necrology of Silly on 5 Sept. (E. Brouette, ‘Notes extraites de l’obituaire de Silly’, Analecta Praemonstratensia, lxvi (1980), p. 233), in that of Prémontré on 7 September (R. Van Waefelghem, ed., L’obituaire de l’abbaye de Prémontré, (Louvain, 1913), p. 174), and in those of various other Premonstratensian or Cistercian houses on 12 September (e.g., Gallia 690). He appears in the obituary of Saint-Victor de Paris on the same date, where he is remembered as a ‘special friend’ (specialis amicus) of the abbey (A. Molinier, Obituaires de la province de Sens, vol. 1, 1st part, (1902) pp. 584-585).”

Page 274. In the first line of the entry on Lisiard, for “Previously prepositus” read “Previously a can. of Le Mans cath. (Peltzer, Canon Law, p. 123, esp. n. 244). Delete that Lisiard was previously prepositus of St. Pierre de Aila for the Lisiard mentioned in this act is Lisiard, bp. of Soissons (1108-ca. 1126). See Ramackers, Papsturkunden in Frankreich, Picardie, p. 207. Replace “El. in 1188 (Houedene II 337)” with “El. in either 1187 (R. Lottin, ed., Chartularium insignis ecclesiae Cenomannensis quod dicitur Liber albus capituli, (Le Mans, 1869, no. CCCCLXVIII), or 1188 (Houedene II 337)”. Change “He had a nephew named Geoffrey (ADC, H 6551 o) and” to “He had nephews named Geoffrey (ADC, H 6551 o) and Guy, the latter of whom was granted land by the abbot of St.-Martin in 1213 (cart. St.-Martin, fo. 158v (138v)), and”.

29. I thank Christopher Brooke for calling these refs. to my attention. Brooke hypothesizes that Walter Durdent prior at Christ Church, Canterbury, and then bp. of Coventry was the link through which Froger became archdcn. of Derby, and that Abp. Theobald may have introduced Froger to Henry II to whom he owed his later positions as king’s almoner and, indeed, as bp. of Sées.

Page 275. To the end of the entry on bp. Sylvester, add: “He was the cousin (consanguineus) of John de Perron (prob. Le Grand Perron, Orne, cant. Sées, com. Aunou-sur-Orne) (cart. St.-Martin, fo. 28 (21)).”

Page 275. To footnote 10, add: “For a full discussion of this disputed election see Peltzer, Canon Law, pp. 124-33.”

Page 275. To the end of the entry on Garin, add: “Garin is remembered in the obituary of Saint-Victor on 7 April (Molinier, Obituaires de la province de Sens, vol. 1, 1st part, p. 551), where he is said to have been a can. of the abbey, whence, probably, the reference in Gallia.”

Page 275. For the entry on Henry de Alneto, delete “de Alneto.” For “Two docs. show Henry as both prior and archdcn.” read “Three docs. show Henry as both prior and archdcn.”, adding the ref. ADC, 1 J 117, fo. 13v (cart. of Saint-Vigor de Perrières). Delete the sentence “The only time he appears with his name, de Alneto, is as archdcn. (ADC, H 6550).” Add the sentence: “Arnulf of Lisieux wrote to the pope c.1161 (Letters of Arnulf ep. 35) to complain that Froger had replaced the prior, presumably Henry, with an ‘idiot’ (idiota), presumably John.”

Page 276. To the entry on John, note that the Letters of Arnulf ep. 35 implies a starting date for John of c.1161. In line 5 of the entry, for “1159 × 85” read “1160/1 × 1184/5”.

Page 276. In the paragraph on the archdeaconries, replace the sentence that begins, “Later those archdeaconries were known as...” with, “Later those archdeaconries were known as Sées, Exmes, Houlme, Bellême and Corbon (P. Desportes, et al., Fasti ecclesiae gallicanae... Tome IX, Diocèse de Sées, 1200-1547 (Turnhout, 2005), pp. 3-5).” Replace the sentence that begins, “But during the Ducal Period...” with, “But during the Ducal Period the system fluctuated. The archdeaconry of Exmes, for example, seems to have originally taken its name from the village of Eraines, to the northeast of Falaise, and we have references throughout this period to the archdeacons of this circumscription as being both archdeacon of Eraines and archdeacon of Exmes (those who can be identified with this post will be referred to below as ‘archdcns. of Eraines/Exmes’). Similarly, the archdeaconry of Corbon seems to have been referred to in the 11th century as that of Mortagne. The fact that the archdeaconry of Sées shares its name with that of the diocese itself poses a number of problems when trying to identify the archdeacons of this circumscription, since scribes often used Sagiensis to denote the diocese rather than the archdeaconry, especially when only one archdeacon witnessed an act.”³⁰

30. See now the important study by R. Allen, “Mémoire et diplomatique: l’édition des actes des évêques de Sées (911-1220)”, Bulletin de la Société historique et archéologique de l’Orne, forthcoming.

Page 277. In the entry on Odo, "(ibid. no. 5)" and "(BN, ms. lat. 5441², pp. 293-4)" are in fact the same doc.

Page 277. In the entry on Norman, add: "Was previously dean (q.v.)." Change "in three undated chs. of bp. Ivo" to "in three undated chs. with bp. Ivo".

Page 277. In the entry on Godfrey, for "in 1097" read "on 17 April 1097", and for "ADO, H 938" read "ADO, H 938, no. 15".

Page 278. In the sixth line of the entry on John I, to "blessed John as bp." add "of Lisieux".

Page 278. To footnote 16, add the following sentence: "It should be noted that John I, John son of Harduin, and Arnulf were all archdeacons in the diocese of Sées, but not necessarily of the archdeaconry of Sées."

Page 278. To the entry on William I, add that William also occ. as archdcn. of Exmes (AN, S 2238, no. 35). In line 7, for "RHGF XXIII" read "RHGF XV". The 25 Dec. 1155 ref. in line 10 could be to William I or William II (q.v., below). Thus, add as the penultimate sentence: "William I's final known occ. is April 1155 (ADO, 31 J 65/1, fo. 288)."

Page 278. For the entry on Fulk II, it is worth noting that since he was involved in a dispute over the jurisdiction of a church of Bellême, he was likely archdcn. of Bellême.

Page 278. To the entry on John son of Harduin, add "First occ. as archdcn. datable to a single year is in 1109, where he is referred to as the nephew (nepos) of Robert de Neuville (Noveville), who was the brother both of Harduin and of John, archdcn., later bp. of Lisieux (cart. St.-Martin, fo. 93)."

Page 279. In the first sentence of the second paragraph of the entry on Arnulf, replace "1127" with "1128 (new style)", and "(BN, ms. lat. 5441², pp. 337-8 = Barret, Marmoutier no. 25, where, however, Arnulf's name is omitted)" with "ADO, H 2159".

Page 279. In the entry on Haimer, add "Haimer is explicitly called archdcn. of Bellême". Replace "1127" with "1128 (new style)" and "(BN, ms. lat. 5441², pp. 337-8 = Barret, Marmoutier no. 25)" with "ADO, H 2159".

Page 279. In the entry on Henry de Alneto, delete the toponym "de Alneto". For "In two instances he was called both archdcn. and prior of Sées" to "In three instances he was called both archdcn. and prior of Sées", adding the reference "ADC, 1 J 117, fo. 13v (cartulary of Saint-Vigor de Perrières)." Delete the penultimate sentence, "His final appearance ... narrow the dating range)."

Page 280. To the entry on entry on Hugh III, add: “Hugh was most likely archdcn. of Corbon. He appears in a ch. alongside the archdcns. Henry of Houlme, Roger of Sées, and William of Eraines/Exmes at a time when Haimer is known to have been archdcn. of Bellême (ADC, 1 J 117, fo. 13v).”

Page 280. After the entry on Hugh III, add the following new archdcn.: William II. Appears as archdcn. of Corbon in two chs. of bp. Gerard II, both dated 1155 × 1157 (BN, ms. lat. 12681, fo. 209; ADC, 2 H 164).

Page 280. After the entry on William II, add the following new entry: Henry de Alneto. Occ. once, explicitly as archdcn. of Sées, alongside John, archdcn. of Eraines/Exmes in a ch. of bp. Froger dated 1170 × 84/5 (ADC, H 6550, where the presence of Rouen archdcn. Ivo of Vieux-Pont helps narrow the dating range).

Page 280. For the entry on Sylvester, replace “Occ. in an undated doc. ... ADE, H 70)” with “First occ. datable to a single year is in 1186 (cart. St.-Martin, fo. 51v), although he was active under bp. Froger (cart. St.-Martin, fos. 92r-v). He appears in a confirmation of bp. Lisiard for Bec dated 1187/8 × 94, where he is explicitly identified as archdcn. of Sées (ADE, H 70)”. To the end of the entry on Sylvester, add: “Said to be the nepos of bp. Froger (Gallia 691; see also Peltzer, Canon Law, p. 127, n. 260).”

Page 280. Combine the materials for John II and John III into the following single entry: John II. Nephew of bp. Froger (ADC, H 6550), his first occ. to a single year is in 1163 (cart. St.-Wandrille, fo. 277v). He is often referred to as archdcn. of Exmes (ADC, 2 H 153/1; Cart. de la Trappe, no. 38, pp. 248-9; Vernier, Jumièges, I, no. LXXXII, pp. 205-207; ADC, 2 H 159; ADC, H 6550; ADC, 2 D 107), but also appears as archdcn. of Eraines (ADC, 2 D 66; cart. Troarn, fos. 178r, 182r-83v, 202v-203r), the designation remaining interchangeable during this period (see, for example, the accounts of two assizes held in his presence in August 1190, where he is called both ‘archdcn. of Exmes’ [Haskins, Norman Institutions, p. 336] and ‘archdcn. of Eraines’ [Haskins, ibid., p. 335]). John II was in league with Sylvester the treas. of Lisieux against bp. Arnulf of Lisieux (Letters of Arnulf, epp. 33, 35). He acted as a royal messenger in Nov. 1169 during the Becket controversy (Corresp. of Becket, ep. 243; JS Epp. ep. 298; Materials for Thomas Becket VII, no. DCXXVI). Witnesses ch. of Ralph Foliot archdcn. of Hereford, England (Kemp, ‘Additions and Corrections’, p. 8, dated by ed. to c.1185 × 1199) where Ralph adjusts payments owed by him to the nuns of Almenêches, which convent was in the diocese of Sées. His final occ. datable to a single year is Aug. 1190 (see above). The numerous mentions among the chs. of bp. Froger to an archdcn. John, without archdcnry., or to a John, archdcn. of Sées, when no other archdcn. is named (e.g. Westminster Abbey Charters, 1066-c.1214, ed. E Mason (1988), no. 365), should most probably be understood to be a ref. to John II.

Page 280. Delete Froger as archdcn. of Sées. I thank J. Peltzer for alerting me to the likelihood that the sole ref. to Froger as archdcn. of Sées is the 1159 ch. in which Delisle and Berger (Actes, no. CXXIV) make the false assumption that Froger the archdcn. must be of Sées when in reality there is no evidence to assume other than that he was archdcn. of Derby (diocese of Coventry). Interestingly, Round (Cal. Docs. France, no. 1156) in editing this same ch. avoids the error. Indeed, all other refs. to Froger as archdcn. (e.g., Delisle-Berger, Actes, no. CXXIII) would be to him as archdcn. of Derby. Froger was, however, bp. of Sées (q.v.). The final two sentences of the entry on Froger as archdcn. remain valid and could therefore be relocated to the entry for Froger as bp. of Sées on p. 274.

Page 281. Add the following new entry after the record for William III: John. Occ. once in the exchequer rolls of 1194/5 as archdcn. of Houlme (Mag. Rot. I 228). He is perhaps the archdcn. J. mentioned in a charter of 1199 (Cart. Le Mans, no. 130).

Page 281. Delete the current entry on Hubert and replace it with the following: Was archdcn. of Eraines/Exmes. Witnesses three chs. of bp. Lisiard (ADC, H 6510, fos. 37v-38, no. 145; ADC, H 6551 b, o) and one of William, chaplain of Bailleul (ADC, H 4050), none of which can be precisely dated, though they must be after Aug. 1190 (last dated ref. to John, archdcn. Eraines/Exmes) and after death of Hugh IV, since Hubert appears in various documents of the 13th cent. He occ. once as archdcn. of Exmes and once as archdcn. of Eraines in the patent rolls of 1202 (Rot. Litt. Pat., pp. 7/b, 9/a). He served as a papal judge delegate in c.1208 (Müller nos. 178-9, pp. 316-18, as archdcn. of Eraines). Hubert archdcn. of Eraines is most likely to be identified with Hubert, archdcn. of “Airaines/Harenis”, who served as royal proctor in Rome in 1216 (N. Vincent, The Letters and Charters of Cardinal Guala Bicchieri (Woodbridge, 1996), nos. 40 and 165, and cf., p. 160 where the ed. incorrectly proposes for Hubert’s diocese not “Sées” but “Somme”).

Page 281. Delete the current entry on John Baristart and replace it with the following: John Baristart (also Baristaut and Barिताut). His el. must have taken place after 14 April 1190, when he appears as a pr. among the witnesses of a ch. of bp. Lisiard (ADC, 2 H 159), and 7 May 1191, his first occ. datable to a single year as archdcn. (ADS, H 928). He appears as John Baristart, archdcn. of Sées, in an undated ch. of bp. Lisiard for Villers-Canivet (ADC, 2 H 159), but the ref. is undoubtedly to the diocese rather than the archdcnry., since we know that Sylvester was archdcn. of Sées from 1186 to 1202. John should perhaps be identified, therefore, with John, archdcn. of Bellême, who appears among the witnesses of a ch. of bp. Lisiard for Saint-André-en-Gouffern (ADC, H 6551 n). A certain J., archdcn. of Bellême, was a correspondent of Adam, abbot of Perseigne (1188-1221) (J. Bouvet, ed., Correspondance d'Adam, abbé de Perseigne (1188-1221), (Le Mans, 1951-1962), no. 29, pp. 197-205).

Page 284. Delete the entry on Anfred. He was most likely associated with the abbey of Saint-Wandrille. In the ch. of bp. Gerard II he appears in the witness list between Ralph, prior of the abbey, and Ralph the monk, while in the ch. of bp. Froger, although he appears in the witness list after John, prior of Sées, the expression “et universo conventu” most probably applies to that of Saint-Wandrille, rather than the chapter of Sées.

31. Eure, chef-lieu de cant.

Page 286. To the entry on Simon, add: “He also occ. as deacon and cleric of the archdeacon (clericus archidiaconi) in 1145 (ADO, H 2160).”

Page 286. In the entry on Alberic change “Occ. in 1145 as pr. of St. Cirici” to “Occ. in 1145 as pr. of Saint-Cyr (that is, Saint-Cyr-la-Rosière³²)”.

Page 287. Delete the entry Engelrand [Oysum?]. The Engerondus Sanson who appears in ADC, H 6551 o, as well as in two other charters of bp. Lisiard (ADC, H 6510, fo. 38, no. 147; BN, ms. lat. 11060, fo. 53r-v), is most probably a lay member of the Sanson family, who, according to the cartulary of St.-Martin of Sees, were lords of Ouézy (Oseio) (Calvados, cant. Bourguébus) in 1187 (cart. St.-Martin, fo. 76v (66v)).

32. Orne, cant. Nocé.

Footnote 29 would therefore read: “Calvados, cant. Falaise-Nord.”

Page 288. In the entry on Garin de Villa Duffusa change “in a ch. of” to “in a ch. with” and “hence 1144 × 57” to “dated c.1154” and add “in which he is specifically identified as a regular canon”.

Page 288. In the entry on ? Mag. Geoffrey de Lainanai change “Lainanai” to “Lamanai”, that is Lamnay, Sarthe, cant. Montmirail.

Page 290. In the entry on Hugh II change “in an undated ch. of bp. Gerard” to “in a ch. with bp. Gerard dated c.1154” and add “where he is specifically identified as a secular canon”.

Page 290. In the entry on Hugh de Avenis, for “Avenis” read “Arenis”. Thus, Hugh of Eraines.

William Belmes (?Beaumais, Calvados, cant. Morteaux-Coulibœuf). Said to have become can. in 1131 (Clercs au service de la Réforme, Annexe 2, no. 1, p. 318).

Page 292. In the entry for Osbert de Can-, for “de Can-” read “of Canon.”
Add that he was also a cleric (q.v.).

Page 293. In the last line of the entry for Peter of St.-Loyer, for “bp. Froger” read “bp. Lisiard”.

Page 293. In the entry on Peter de Villa Cadeni, change “Villa Cadeni” to “Villa Badeni”, thus Peter of Villebadin. Footnote 44 should now read,

de Mesnilgerberto. Cleric of bp. Froger in 1174 (q.v.). Occs. once as possible can. in a ch. of bp. Froger (Barret, Marmoutier, no. 176), and perhaps also in a second
ch. (ADE, H 639).”

can. of the cathedral, but of the Premonstratensian abbey of Saint-Jean de Falaise (he witnesses in all instances as ‘Master Ranulf canon of Falaise’: ADC, H 6551 b, j; ibid. H 6510, fo. 39v-40r, no. 156).

“Beckford.” Accordingly, change footnote 50 to read “Gloucestershire”. To the end of the entry add: "He is prob. to be identified with Robert of Beckford (Becquefort), later prior of Saint-Lô of Bourg-Achard (BN, ms. lat. 9212, fo. 4, no. 31)."

Page 297. In the entry on William of La Cambe change "in a ch. of bp. Gerard" to "in a ch. with bp. Gerard" and "in 1144 × 57" to "c.1154" and add "in which he is specifically identified as a regular canon".

Page 298. To the end of the entry on William Nepote, add: "Still active as possible can. in 1207 (L'échaudé d'Anisy, Extrait, I, p. 253, no. 8)."

Page 298. In the entry on William of Pont-Audemer delete the "?" and replace the entry with: "Appears in a ch. with bp. Gerard II dated c.1154 in which he is specifically identified as a secular canon (Clercs au Service de la Réforme p. 329). Also appears without title in a ch. of the same bp. dated 1155 × 57 (BN, ms. lat. 5441², p. 96). He was also a chapl. (q.v.)."

Page 298. Delete the entry on? Mag. William of Toulouse. Given that William appears among the witnesses of a ch. in favor of the abbey of Villers-Canivet, a daughter of the abbey of Savigny, he is most probably to be identified with William of Toulouse, later monk and abbot of Savigny, who in 1179 became abbot of Cîteaux.
