"Something I would like to hear from my voice": a Documentary on Jim Dine

Olivier Brossard
"Something I would like to hear from my voice": a Documentary on Jim Dine

Olivier Brossard

REFERENCES

« Something I would like to hear from my voice », a Documentary on Jim Dine, shot in Jim Dine’s Montrouge studio on 21 July and 12 December 2016.
Script, interview and translation Olivier Brossard
Filming and video editing Siméa Lupéron, Jayson Sansol, Elie Sechan
Campus Numérique, Université Paris Est Marne-la-Vallée, Institut Universitaire de France

Jim Dine is an American artist and poet. His most recent show is Paris Reconnaissance (Centre Pompidou, February-April 2018).
"Something I would like to hear from my voice": a Documentary on Jim Dine was screened during the Centre Pompidou show.

This media file cannot be displayed. Please refer to the online document http://journals.openedition.org/transatlantica/8938
AUTHOR

OLIVIER BROSSARD

Paris Est-Marne-La-Vallée